

Silent Night

Tablature for six-hole Native American flute

The tablature for 'Silent Night' is presented in ten measures, each indicated by a drum icon. Each measure contains one or more flute diagrams. The diagrams show the six holes of the flute, with black dots representing finger placement. The piece is written for a six-hole Native American flute.